# 1 WHO WE ARE

"Tages Onlus for foreigners" is a group of mental health professionals dedicated to English-speaking clients. This group is part of Tages Onlus, a charitable organization founded in 2014 by bringing together different professionals with competencies in health care, psychology, social interventions and education. Tages Onlus is part of European networks (Mental Health Europe; Europa Donna Breast Cancer Coalition; European Migration Forum) and collaborates with different national and international institutes. "Tages Onlus for foreigners" is formed by a multidisciplinary team offering evidenced-based interventions tailored on client's requests and needs. All the staff members share a common scientific background focused on recent advances of Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT), with a specific focus on Acceptance and Commitment Therapy (ACT), Compassion Focused Therapy (CFT), Mindfulness-Based Cognitive Therapy (MBCT), and so forth.

# 2 WHAT WE DO

We offer mental health services for English-speaking clients: Psychotherapy (for individuals, couples and groups) using different approaches (CBT, ACT, CFT, MBCT); Psychiatric assessment and medication management; Psychological assessment for adults; Psychological counseling; Tailored interventions for individuals and groups.

# 3 THE "TAGES FOR FOREIGNERS" TEAM

► Simone Cheli, PsyD (CHAIR)

Simone is adjunct professor in Clinical Psychology at the University of Florence, founder of Tages Charity, and psychotherapist in the Italian national health service. He is a chartered psychologist, accredited CBT therapist (European Association of Behavioral and Cognitive Therapy) and community college teacher affiliate of the American Psychological Association.

► Francesca Chiarello, MD (MEMBER)

Francesca is a Licensed Adult Psychiatrist with experience in the treatment of various mental health conditions. She has an interest in neuroscience research, which was developed during an internship at Charité University Hospital in Berlin.
